THE MAGAZINE YOU WILL USE EVERY DAY

SLM Essential Reads 2011-12

School Library Monthly will run four Essential Reads columns in 2011-2012. This year, each 750-word column will focus on a single educational topic that may be impacting work at the building level:

- ▶ Powerful learning through classroom management
- ▶ Response to intervention
- ▶ Reader's workshop
- ▶ Writer's workshop

We're looking for your contributions of great books, articles, blogs or specific blog posts, and Web sites on these topics—the essential readings that will help school librarians brush up their own skills and springboard those skills into conversations and projects at the building level and beyond.

We're hoping you can help us by sharing citations of the works that have influenced you. Please use the form posted on the SLM blog: <http://bit.ly/essentialreads>. You do not need to fill in each box, but we'd love to hear your thoughts!

Thanks!
